

Margery A. Colloff

Margery A. Colloff joined Emmet after 25 years at White & Case LLP where she headed the Corporate Trust practice worldwide, working in their Hong Kong and New York offices. During her career she has represented virtually every major New York bank trustee. Ms. Colloff has expertise in international debt restructuring and corporate finance on behalf of bondholders, indenture trustees, institutional investors, lenders, insurance companies, collateral agents and administrative agents. Ms. Colloff also has extensive experience representing trustees and agents primarily in international finance, corporate trust, project finance, structured finance, secured transactions, and Trust Indenture Act (TIA) transactions, and counsels clients on trustee litigation, compliance issues and fraud detection. Ms. Colloff has represented indenture trustees in dozens of the largest out of court restructurings and groundbreaking cases in the United Kingdom, Asia and South America.
