EMMET

EMMET, MARVIN & MARTIN, LLP

Eric Mullery

Eric Mullery is an attorney in the Litigation Group, with a practice focused on white collar criminal defense and civil litigation. His practice includes criminal matters, trusts and estates, securities, civil enforcement actions and commercial litigation. As a former state prosecutor, he leverages his prior trial experience to ensure best outcomes for clients.

Prior to joining Emmet, Eric served as an Assistant District Attorney in the Manhattan District Attorney's Office, where he prosecuted a wide range of criminal offenses in New York County, including white-collar crimes, robbery, kidnapping, sexual assault, domestic violence, and illegal firearm possession.

Eric graduated from Cardozo Law School, where he served as a Staff Editor on the Cardozo International & Comparative Law Review and was recognized as a Berg Fellow for his public service work. Eric is a United States Marine Corps veteran.

NEW YORK OFFICE

P: 212-238-3103

F: 212-238-3100

E: emullery@emmetmarvin.com

EDUCATION

Fordham University (B.A., 2014)

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law (J.D., 2022)

PRACTICES & INDUSTRIES

Litigation